The headline voting intention figures for this week's poll are as follows: LAB 34% (NC), CON 31% (-2%), UKIP 17% (+1), LD 7% (-1), GRN 4% (NC).

While this is the third week in a row that we've shown a Labour lead, the last two have been small and the reality appears to be that not much has changed in recent weeks.

Labour voters are divided on whether the party should partner with the SNP or Lib Dems in the event of a hung parliament, with a marginal preference for the Lib Dems.

Conservative voters prefer Lib Dems to UKIP by a ratio of about 2:1
